2017 Community Health and Wellness Champion Award

In 2009, the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce formed Better Health Wabash Valley, an initiative charged with improving the overall health and wellness of the community. Through this initiative, the Chamber has educated and motivated businesses to empower their employees for self-improvement in all areas of health. The Community Health and Wellness Champion Award recognizes a business or organization who, as part of this community collaboration, has educated and motivated individuals and families within their own organization to strive for a wellness philosophy.

THE CRITERIA

The Community Health and Wellness Champion Nominees must meet the following criteria:

1. Contributes to improving the overall health and wellness of the community
2. Evidence of educating and motivating individuals within their organization to strive for wellness

QUALIFICATIONS

- May represent either the profit or non-for profit sector
- Must be an active organization or individual located or operating in the Wabash Valley
- Partner, Better Health Wabash Valley

COMPLETING THE FORM

- Nominations for the Community Health and Wellness Champion Award must be submitted using this nomination form and format.
- You may include supporting documents (articles, testimonials, etc.) with your complete nomination form
